

FINAL DEATH TOLL OF MINE BLAST WILL BE AROUND ONE HUNDRED

Thirty Seven Are Taken Out Alive—One Miner Unaided Saved Lives of 26 Fellow Miners—Mine Not Greatly Damaged—Will be Virtually Cleared Today, is Belief

(By the Associated Press)
KEMMERER, Wyo., Aug. 14.—The rescue of three more miners entombed in Frontier Mine No. 1, of the Kemmerer Coal company in an explosion early this morning, brought the total of survivors to 37. It was estimated late tonight that the final death toll would be approximately 100.
At 5 o'clock, rescuers found a man lying in the main slope, who was nearing death from inhalation of smoke and gas fumes. He was revived with a pulmotor and brought to the surface, where he was taken to a hospital. He is expected to recover.
A short time later two men who had been hidden in a remote corner of a room off the main slope were brought to the surface, apparently not suffering greatly from their entombment.

STATEMENT WAS ISSUED TUESDAY BY MOVIE STAR

Tells of Relations with William Desmond Taylor

(By the Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 14.—Mary Miles Minter, motion picture actress, tonight gave to the Los Angeles Times what she termed "the first statement that I have ever given out under my own name," regarding her relations with William Desmond Taylor, slain motion picture director and differences which have arisen between her and her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Shelby.
"For months and months," says Miss Minter's statement, "I have been hoping and praying that my differences with my mother might not bring up again the dreadful incidents of the murder of William Desmond Taylor. I have tried and tried to make no references to it in my statements concerning my effort to secure an accounting from my mother, but newspaper reporter after newspaper reporter has hounded me day and night and always with questions about Mr. Taylor.
"William Desmond Taylor came into my life when I was 17 years of age. He was the first man to call me 'Miss Minter.'
"How do you do, Miss Minter," he said to me when first we were introduced and then he smiled. Always before I had been called Mary and treated like a child.
"Time after time I grew up between the girl in her teens and the middle-aged motion picture director was the beginning of quarrels between mother and me," the statement continues.
On one occasion, says the actress, her mother openly upbraided Taylor because of his attentions to her daughter, "fairly raging at him and humiliating him most shamefully."
"For two days," she relates, "I hardly spoke to him, and then I apologized for mother's action."
"Told Me to Obey My Mother."
"Your mother is right, Mary," he said. "She is right and you must always obey her."
"We were never engaged in the sense that he had asked me to marry him and I had promised. I had always hoped that some time we would be married. But we were not engaged in the sense of wearing a ring, or of telling one's friends of an intention to marry, or of telling my mother."

GERMAN CABINET IS GIVEN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Chancellor Outlines Viewpoint of New Government

(By the Associated Press)
BERLIN, Aug. 14.—The new cabinet headed by Chancellor Stresemann was given a vote of confidence today by the reichstag 240 deputies out of a total of 341 favoring the government. Seventy six votes were cast in opposition while twenty-five deputies, supposed to be the Bavarian people party abstained from voting. The other opposition came from the nationalists and communists.
The vote came after Dr. Stresemann had addressed the reichstag and given that body the new government's viewpoint of the general situation and particularly with reference to the crisis brought about by the occupation of the Ruhr and the Rhineland. He informed the members of the chamber that Germany required complete restoration of her rights in the occupied territory as an essential to the abandonment of passive resistance. The setting free of all Germans imprisoned in the districts occupied by the French and Belgians and permission for the return of those who have been sent out of the occupied area also were made conditions for a cessation for passive resistance.
Dr. Stresemann declared the change in government was not a sign of weakness on the part of Germany. On the contrary the change had brought into being the strongest cabinet as regards opposition to any idea of permitting the violation of Germany, that the country had had since the republic was formed.
Passing almost immediately to the question of the occupation of the Ruhr in his address the chancellor said passive resistance was deeply rooted in the firm conviction of its justice.
"This," he declared, "has been unequivocally recognized by the British government, and we may assume that this statement of the British conception will find echo in France and Belgium."
Welcome Arbitration.
Asserting that Germany would welcome arbitration of the Ruhr question Dr. Stresemann added:
"We have no doubt that any impartial decision would restore to us our Ruhr territory and on the day this happens all forces will work to end the intolerable paralysis of the main artery of German economy."
"If the free and unrestricted administration of the Ruhr is assured us, if the situation in the Rhineland again is such as is guaranteed by international treaties, if every imprisoned German in the Ruhr and the Rhineland is restored to liberty then after a breathing spell has been granted us we shall be able, by exerting the economic force of the country to furnish means for settlement of the reparations question, provided the burdens imposed upon our economic life and the further development of our political and economic life is a preliminary condition for resumption of the reparations deliveries which are to be discontinued owing to economic derangement caused by the avulsion of the Ruhr."

SEARCH FOR HUSBAND ENDS IN ST. LOUIS

(By the Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 14.—A four years search conducted by Mrs. Sadie Scofield of New York for her husband, Benjamin Scofield, president of the Obelisk Products company, of this city has ended successfully, it was learned today when it became known that he had been arrested here on a charge of abandoning his wife and child. Mrs. Scofield arrived here several days ago after making the trip from New York to this city partly on foot and partly by automobile.
Reports of rescue workers indicated tonight that there had been little damage to the inside of the mine. With the exception of one cave-in, the interior is said to show little effects of the blast. Rapid extension of the "trip" tracks indicates that progress was fast inside the mine and that the workers were not greatly hampered by debris.
Work of bringing the bodies to the surface, which began this evening is expected to be completed tomorrow. Rescue workers have attempted to stop the trip of the United States bureau of mines rescue car, reported to be way here from Utah. It was said because of the belief that the mine will be cleared of bodies and virtually all debris by tomorrow.

Strikers to Lay Case Before Governor

(By the Associated Press)
HILLSBORO, Ill., Aug. 14.—A delegation of striking smelter workers from the plant of the American Zinc company at Taylor Springs near here, departed tonight for Kankakee, to lay their case before the governor personally.
Two persons were named for the mission tonight at a mass meeting at Taylor Springs, attended by several hundred persons, many of whom were former employees of the plant.
Operations of the plant were suspended a week ago today when about 300 men left work following a strike call by Edward Karbine, organizer of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. He and Adolph Carozzo, secretary of the Hillsboro Trades and Labor Council, were named to present the strikers' cause to Governor Len Small tomorrow during the scheduled political rally at Kankakee.
It was not the intention of the delegation to urge the withdrawal of the 700 troopers stationed at the smelting works, Mr. Karbine declared, but rather to question whether troops were needed at the time they were ordered to service early last Saturday and to suggest a public declaration of policy which might be ordered to govern in future industrial controversies.
Quiet ruled at the plant today, where the ten units of guardsmen still were on duty. More than half of the normal force was at work today and curtailed operations continued in every department. The claim of the union leaders was that not a single striker had returned to work.

FOUR MEN KILLED, TWO INJURED, IN TENNESSEE MINE

Men are Buried Under Avalanche of Falling Slate
(By the Associated Press)

An ore car filled with miners was proceeding down a gorge shortly after the men had quit work when a mass of slate from a ledge above gave way and descended upon the victims. Rescuers who went to the aid of the miners had many narrow escapes as the slate continued to fall but finally succeeded in liberating the injured miners.

MOTORISTS RUSH TO LAY IN SUPPLY OF LOW PRICED OIL

Retail Dealers Report Greatest Sales in History

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—American motorists from the Alleghenies to the Rockies today revived the quaint old custom of "rushing the can" as price slashing tactics of competitors in the gasoline industry brought about bargain prices, and retail gasoline dealers reported one of the greatest sales in their history.
The thrifty motorist who ordered his gasoline tank filled to the brim and brought along extra containers to haul home a reserve, brought forth no panacea of prosperity from the petroleum industry, however, for all asserted that prevailing prices were far below the cost of production and will prevail only as long as competition makes them necessary. The reduced prices in general extended from the Allegheny mountains to the Rockies, with consumers of the middle west and south reaping the principal benefits altho some sections were still unaffected. Few points along either the Atlantic or Pacific coasts reported any general reductions.
The price slashing, started by the Standard Oil company of Indiana in South Dakota after Governor W. H. McMaster had ordered state depots to sell gasoline at 16 cents, was extended throughout the company's territory in ten states and part of an eleventh today with a reduction of 6.6 cents.
Independents charging the cut of the Standard is unfair and ruthless fell in line with reduced prices altho in many instances they were only five cent cuts. The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey announced a two cent reduction in West Virginia and the Standard Oil Company of Nebraska and the Standard Oil Company of Kentucky also reduced their prices.
The Manhattan Oil Company in Iowa announced that cuts would be met in that state.
Oil Stocks Drop.
As a report of the price slashing, a heavy selling of Petroleum stocks was reported on the New York curb and many oil stocks hit new low prices for the year. Meanwhile oil men laughed at statements that the day by day selling of "oil" by Governor McMaster of South Dakota was responsible for the price slump maintaining instead that surplus production, particularly in the California fields have made storage of the surplus impossible with the result that companies must unload. Some of the oil men also attributed part of the situation to the selling of "oil" by the owners must dispose of at any price to meet loans and other obligations brought about by holding it indefinitely.
Meanwhile service stations pumped out their stocks all day to long lines of waiting motorists. In Chicago alone, according to the Chicago Motor Club, motorists will save $100,000 a day by taking advantage of the 15.4 cent gallon price instead of the 22 cent price of yesterday. Despite the cut prices numerous requests for investigations of the industry were being made. Governor Doherty of Ohio sent a telegram to President Coolidge urging an investigation of the entire industry. The executives of several states said they were getting information on the oil situation.

DEFENSE OUTLINED IN LIBEL SUIT OF WM. WRIGLEY JR.

Attorney Says Statement True That Plaintiff is Klansman
(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—The defense of officials of the Magazine Tolerance, anti Ku Klux Klan paper to the $50,000 libel suit filed by William Wrigley Jr. after the magazine published his name as a member of the Klan, will be that the statement is true, Attorney Benjamin H. Vanderveld said today.
The American Unity League was also made defendant by Wrigley who charged the statement that he was a member of the Klan was false and that the purported application blank bearing his signature and reproduced in the magazine was forged.
The plea filed today states that the Klan records show Wrigley was taken as a member in November 1922, and that officials of Tolerance have his signature on a membership application blank.

PENNSYLVANIA MINERS TO CALL OFF STRIKE

The operators were not present in the conference. It was said and no statement in their behalf was available.

INJUNCTION AGAINST KU KLUX KLAN

Elizabethtown, N. Y., Aug. 14. Supreme Court Justice Ellis J. Staley tonight granted an injunction sought by the state of New York restraining the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and the Kamela, Inc., its sister organization from acting as chartered Benevolent Fraternal organizations in New York state.
Declaring that the statutes clearly intended a certificate of incorporation "should be approved in the form in which it was filed and filed in the form in which it was approved," Justice Staley held that the act of incorporation after approval and before filing was "not only an illegal and unauthorized act but also an imposition and fraud upon the court."

SEIZURE OF VESSELS OUTSIDE THREE MILE LIMIT IS HELD LEGAL

Decision Handed Down in Case of British Ship Marion Mosher Seized While Transferring Cargo of Liquor Eight Miles off the Coast Near Fire Island July 28, 1922

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Seizure of alien rum running vessels that hover outside the three mile limit was held legal by Federal Judge Woodrugh today. The decision was handed down in the case of the British ship Marion Mosher, seized while transferring a liquor cargo to the American-owned motor boat J. H. B., eight miles off the coast near Fire Island, July 28, 1922.
Bonds of the Detroit Fidelity and Surety company, given after the seizure of the craft as a guarantee that it would proceed to its supposed destination, St. John, N. B., were declared forfeited, it being contended that altho the vessel arrived at the Canadian port she did not have her cargo, thereby violating her agreement.
The Marion Mosher case brought about a special session of President Harding's cabinet and an exchange of conversations with Great Britain. The American government decided that the Mosher and other foreign vessels seized as rum runners should be released provided they proceeded immediately to their avowed destination. The United States attorney in his argument before Judge Woodrugh today said:
"It is clear that, irrespective of the cabinet's determination on a matter of diplomatic policy, to release foreign ships having cargoes of liquor when apprehended outside the three-mile limit, there was ample legal authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the Marion Mosher and her cargo of liquor."
Judge Woodrugh held that seizure of foreign ships engaged in smuggling liquor into this country was justifiable even tho they were on the high seas.
"When a ship hovers around the American coast," he said, "within three miles from shore, with intent to violate the laws and is caught in the attempt to smuggle intoxicating liquors, and it is shown that it is in contact with shore, its seizure tho it be of foreign registry and outside the three mile limit is justifiable."

The boy had been put in the cage in the guard room for threatening to poison A. R. Davis, an instructor, and his wife, Davis said. The instructor, who had charge of the cottage where the boy lived, at the school, asserted that he learned of the boy's threats from him and later found a bottle of acid in a workroom where young Wright had told him it had been concealed.
Davis said young Wright had been placed in the school five times, being classified as a delinquent.

President Coolidge in his immediate grappling with the hard coal situation gives the indication that he will be constantly willing to undertake difficult problems. That is a reputation he has previously established as governor of Massachusetts.

The big drop in gasoline prices may not be a matter of joy to the producers or jobbers, but the consumer is feeling in a mighty good humor on the subject. The farmer with unsatisfactory prices prevailing for some products can take courage in the thought that one article he constantly uses is now on a very low level.

Lee O'Neil Browne has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor. Mr. Brown is an avowedly wet candidate and will come before the people on that basis. He at least deserves credit for being unequivocal in the declaration of his position. A mighty slum following Mr. Brown will have in this part of Illinois.

The home coming feature of the Morcan county fair promises a great deal of interest. The old settlers' reunion has long been a thing of the past and the home coming can revive some of its attractions with new ones. This year's plan provides the way for former residents whether old or young, to take part in fair week festivities. They can send souvenirs which will represent them and add to the interest of the whole event.

It is a pleasure to be able to note that local business conditions show an upward tendency.

Merchants believe that the fall and winter business will be of a very satisfactory kind, and pessimism has disappeared. If you have not understood how Jacksonville is developing in a material way it will be worth your while to walk around the business district and note the buildings that are in course of construction. Then take a journey into the residence districts and in every ward you will find new houses under way. There isn't a building boom but steady progress is being made in the building and improvement line.

THE I. L. MORRISONS

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois Historical Society

Last week's "O. J." introduced the Morrisons as old settlers of Morgan county. Mrs. Morrison being given the lead because she came here in 1840, while her husband did not land in old Morgan until 1851.

I. L. Morrison A sketch, printed in 1872, for which Mr. Morrison no doubt gave the points, said:

"Isaac L. Morrison was a native of Barren county Kentucky. He was born January 20th, 1826. He is the son of John C. Morrison, who was a native of Virginia. His father, after his marriage to his first wife settled in Garrett county, Kentucky, in 1793. He figured in the Indian wars of his time, and was with Buckner and Metcalf (afterwards governor), and with Warren, and was engaged in the battle on the Miami, in Ohio. His occupation was farming. He moved to near Glasgow, in Barren county, in 1800 where his first wife died. He was afterwards married to Elizabeth Wellborn, of North Carolina. She was the mother of the subject of this sketch. Mr. Morrison died in 1841, and his widow survived him until 1863, when she died, also, at the old homestead in Kentucky.

Mr. Isaac L. Morrison received his literary education at the Masonic Seminary, in Lexington, Kentucky. He afterwards read law in that town, under Addison M. Gazlay, and, in September, 1849, he was admitted to the bar and commenced the practice of his profession. He came to Jacksonville in June, 1851, where he established himself in the practice of the law, which he successfully followed since that time.

To say that Mr. Morrison stands high in the profession in Morgan county and this portion of the state, is simply reiterating a fact well known to our citizens. Politically Mr. Morrison is a member of the Republican party, and was a delegate to the State convention which first established the platform of that party in Illinois. He has since been a firm and efficient supporter of those principles. He has ever been an opponent of slavery and its extension. He was a member of the convention in 1864, which nominated Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Morrison was married in July, 1853 to Anna R. Tucker, daughter of Jonathan Tucker, deceased, of New York City. Mrs. Morrison is a native of New York City, and is a lady of high culture and accomplishments. Mr. Morrison and his wife have two children, a daughter and son, who are both living. He and his family are members of the Episcopal church. Mr. Morrison is esteemed for his intrinsic value as a citizen, as well as for his correct counsel and sound judgment as an attorney.

James' History of Jacksonville 1855, had the following:

"Isaac L. Morrison has been a resident of the city of Jacksonville since June, 1851. He was admitted to the bar in his native state and has made the practice of the law his business from the time of his admission to the bar. He was a delegate to the Republican convention which met in Bloomington, Ill., in 1856. He attended the Republican convention at Baltimore in 1864, as a delegate, and served as a member of the Republican State Central Committee. In 1877, 1879 and 1883 he was a member of the House of Representatives in the state legislature, and served as chairman of the committee on judiciary in the Thirty and thirty second General Assemblies.

In 1880 he was the Republican candidate for Congress from this district. The district being largely Democratic, he perhaps had no expectation of being elected. However he made an active canvass, and reduced the Democratic majority about 900 votes, and ran ahead of the state and national ticket."

Mr. Morrison paid his attention after this to his profession and to business affairs and stood amongst the highest among the attorneys not only at the bar of Morgan, but also of this state.

He passed on February 27, 1901.

The Morrison Children Miriam and Alfred were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Morrison. Miss Miriam married the Hon. Thomas Worthington, formerly of Pittsfield, and more extended notice will be made of them next week.

Alfred was a bright, handsome, and very pleasant young man. He had many friends, and passed away at a comparatively early date.

An Important Case One of the most important cases Mr. Morrison had to do with was in the settlement of the great estate of the late John T. Alexander, of this county, and it included the handling of about thirty thousand acres of the best Illinois land, situated partly in Morgan and in Champagne counties.

It lasted some time, owing to certain complications which arose. Mr. Morrison was also interested in the Jacksonville National Bank, and with the Hook-Avers building and running of the Jacksonville South Eastern Railroad.

Many people have the idea that CHIROPRACTIC will help chronic but not affect acute conditions. This is a mistaken idea. In acute cases Chiropractic particularly shines—When you get that "off" feeling come and see me—don't resort to drugs. I neither add or take anything away, but adjust things to normal. Normality is health, not half health. Let me save you a trip to the Wisconsin woods. "Be sure Your Chiropractor is competent." Look at their Diploma—it will tell the story.

THIS MOHAMMED BELIEVES IN ENJOYING SELF

During Visits Has Minister Make Speeches
for Him

Paris. (By The Associated Press)—Sidi Mohammed Ben-El-Habib, Bey of Tunis, who looked over the frivolities of Paris during a week's visit here is now returning to Tunis without regret. The Bey is a plump person who has solved the problem of life by letting the other fellow do the worrying.

He was expected, according to strict custom to make dry speeches in response to long, dull and flattering remarks of officials at numerous functions he attended; but he amused the population and somewhat annoyed officials by having one of his cabinet ministers deliver conventional addresses of thanks while he pleasantly dreamed or watched the proceedings with half closed eyes.

"Why have ministers if you don't make them work," the Bey explained. Then he commented thus on the hubbub of Paris: "when do these people get time to think" he asked.

The Bey who, like the true oriental, forms an opinion slowly and then is loath to change it, is going back to his domain with untroubled ideas on the utility of phases of modern civilization. He refused to be rushed by the French government, which spent $5,000 francs in entertaining him and hardly got its money's worth and frequently when elaborate programs of visits had been arranged for him the Bey announced that he much preferred to sit and think, sending in his place one of his sons, who enjoyed the novelty of the occasion.

The presiding officers of the French chamber of deputies have put out a feeler in favor of a rule automatically suspending the proceedings of the chamber for twenty minutes every two hours to enable the legislators to cool off physically and mentally and to allow the chamber itself to be ventilated so that the legislators will not go to sleep. The newspapers generally approve the idea. They sarcastically observe that the chamber certainly needs fresh air and that the country ought to benefit by even such slight intervals of cessation from oratory.

"The opinion, widely spread and generally accepted is that the United States does not form part of the league of nations; but in truth the U. S. does belong to the league, as can be proved." Thus reads a letter written to the August number of the Moniteur de France. The writer's proof of American membership in the league is that ten male and female citizens of the United States occupy posts in the league secretariat at Geneva, some of the posts being important ones.

The letter says an American directs the league's internal affairs and another is joint director of the publicity section; an American woman with two American assistants is at the head of the library; another American woman is secretary of the mandates commission, two other Americans are employed in the hygiene section, one American is engaged on the Danzig-Saar section while still another is engaged with judicial matters. From these facts the writer argues that America is a member of the league in no small degree. He asks in what proportion their salaries are provided for by their country. The magazine says it has received many letters to the same effect and points out that most of the Americans in the league were appointed at a time when the entry of the United States into the league was taken for granted and that their contracts have not expired. The U. S., the magazine adds, seems to be getting nearer the league pointing to the proposal that it join the permanent court of international justice and its sending of an important delegation to participate in the work of the opium commission.

BRITISH TRAINS

London—Pullman cars equipped with radio receiving sets will be running shortly on the various railway services in England.

Experiments carried out by radio engineers on express trains, using both inside and outside aerials, have been very successful. It has been possible to pick up concerts from broadcasting stations while traveling at 60 miles an hour. Passing trains do not interfere, nor do tunnels make any difference to the clearness of the music and messages.

15,000 TO TAKE PART IN PAGEANT

Aurora. (By A. P.)—More than 15,000 people will take part in the historical pageant, representing significant episodes in the history of Illinois, to be given at the Central States Fair August 17 to 25.

The pageant master is M. C. Park, and the author of the episodes is Dr. C. J. Cigrand, founder of "Flag Day" who emphasizes the peaceful side of Illinois history rather than the spectacular side. Except for one scene dealing with the World war, the whole story will deal with the customs and folkways of the Indians, their friendly relations with the white settlers and the slow evolution of the great state from pioneer days to the present.

NAMELESS HEN IS FINE LAYER

SPRINGFIELD. — (By The A. P.)—A nameless little white Leghorn hen is astonishing the poultry raisers of Illinois this year by her ability as an egg layer, and an equally obscure Barred Plymouth Rock has stepped into the limelight by 55 days of consecutive laying.

With three months yet to go in the state egg laying contest being conducted by the Illinois department of agriculture, the little white Leghorn and the barred rock are unconcernedly going about their business but give promise of chalking up the best averages when the final reckoning is made in October.

The White Leghorn belongs to H. B. Hammer of Weaver, Iowa. She is thus far one of the most industrious of all the 1200 hens entered in the egg race. During the last nine months she has laid 240 eggs. This means that she had only 32 days of vacation during that time.

But the record of the Barred Rock, the property of Jules Francise of Westhampton Beach, Long Island, is even more remarkable, according to C. P. Scott, of the department of agriculture, who is directing the race. Fifty-five days without a holiday, is phenomenal. If she shows the same industry in the future, she probably will carry away individual honors.

One contest is being conducted at Morrisburg and the other at Quincy. When the second annual

ANCIENT ROMANS USED MODERN HEATING METHODS

London.—A central heating apparatus used in a Roman villa about seventeen centuries ago has been unearthed in the course of excavations at Kenyham cemetery, Somersetshire.

The villa, which was about 120 feet long, was heated by a hypocaust or heating chamber, the heat passing under the floors of various rooms by means of a series of passages. Some rooms were reached by means of flues instead of floor passages.

NEW HAMPSHIRE MAN HELD ON CHARGE OF KILLING TWO WOMEN

Slays Wife and Mother-in-Law and Puts Bodies in Boxes

(By the Associated Press)
MEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 14.—Two boxes each containing the dismembered body of a woman were found in a field here early today. Shortly afterward Nunie G. Tsekos of Franklin, N. H., was arrested as he was running thru Medford Square and the police said he confessed that he had killed his wife, Natalie and her mother, Mrs. Katherine Adams.

A formal plea of not guilty to a charge of murder was entered for him in the Malden district court later in the day and he was held without bail for the New Hampshire authorities.

A quarrel over money matters which resulted in a fight in which his wife and mother-in-law took the initiative, led to the killing of the two women with a baseball bat and a knife in their home in Franklin last Saturday night, according to an alleged confession by Tsekos to the Medford police.

He told the officers that he took his two children to Boston on Sunday then returned to Franklin, cut up the two bodies and put them in boxes. Yesterday he hired Charles A. Clarke, a taxi driver to take him to Boston with the boxes which he told Clarke contained dishes.

Clarke became suspicious and discovered what he thought was blood on one of the boxes. The car was stopped in Medford and while Tsekos was taking the boxes to a field Clarke notified the police.

The two children were found today in the home of Tsekos, sister in Boston.

The Franklin police upon examining Tsekos' house found no traces of a struggle and no bloodstains. This led to the suggestion that the murders might have been committed elsewhere, but nothing to support this theory had been discovered tonight.

BODY OF ALLEGED

VICTIM IS FOUND
Newnan, Ga., Aug. 14.—The body of Millard Trouton, 33, who friends claim was a victim of a flogging party, was found late today floating in a creek near here. Police were told "Trouton was kidnapped Friday night by four men, who forced him into an automobile and drove off."

Marrying Mr. Taylor was just my dream—a dream which voiced to him always met with the answer that it was impossible.

"Finally he told me that I must not write him any more and must not call him up, that he would telephone me. I waited a week, two weeks, three weeks and he did not call. I swallowed my humiliation and called him. His butler answered and told me he was ill. For five days he did not call and during it all I suffered more than I can express."

Finally, after weeks without word from Taylor, Miss Minter went alone to his home, carrying with her a note which said:

"Dear William Desmond Taylor:—This is good bye. I want you to know that I will always love you, Mary."

The result of this visit, however she relates, was a passionate scene in which the director put his arms about her and kissed her saying:

"I love you, Mary, better than anything in this world, more than God."

Swept by emotion in the course of this interview, Taylor clenched his fingers so tightly that his nails drew blood which he wiped from his palms with a silk handkerchief. This handkerchief, Miss Minter says, she retained as a keepsake.

"That was the first time I ever saw him alone," she continues. Several weeks later Taylor was found dead on the floor of his home, shot to death.

Falls to See Body

Falling in her attempt to view the body of her lover immed, later after she learned of the slaying, Miss Minter says she drove to the house of Mabel Normand, rushed into the room where the screen actress was dressing, grasped her by the shoulders and demanded:

"What do you know about it?" "Nothing," Miss Normand replied, "not a thing but what they have told me."

"And I believed her and still believe her," says Miss Minter in concluding.

Miss Minter will have no further conferences with her mother to settle their differences over an accounting of the former's earnings as a motionpicture actress, she announced tonight after discussing the matter with her attorney.

"I shall not see mother again to settle this trouble," she said. "It must be settled by the attorneys or in court that is all I can say."

The accident occurred across the Potomac River from Washington. Ward, who had come to the capitol with a party of tourists had come up with Stewart as a passenger in a sightseeing plane.

Disregards Protests Of State of Illinois

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Disregarding protests of the state of Illinois and of Cairo and other communities in southern Illinois, the interstate commerce commission today authorized the Illinois Central railroad to proceed thru subsidiary corporations with the construction of a 166 mile cut off line running from Fulton, Ky., to Edgewood, Ill., at a cost of approximately $16,500,000.

The building project was opposed by the Illinois interests on the ground that it would isolate several Illinois cities by putting the main line of the Illinois Central system to New Orleans on a different route. In addition this state is entitled to a percentage of the earnings from traffic routed over the present main line of the Illinois Central while profits made by routing traffic over the new cut off will not be divided with the state.

To carry its plan to effect the Illinois Central purposes to organize the Southern Illinois and Kentucky railroad, which would build 123 miles of single track railroad from Edgewood, Ill., to Metropolis, Ill., on the Ohio river, at Metropolis the Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans railroad, a number of subsidiary would take up the construction bridging the Ohio and building 42 miles to Fulton, where it would connect with the Paducah and Illinois railroad, a third subsidiary of the Illinois Central is now operating.

Summarizing the reasons which induced the commission to grant the desired authority the decision today said the new construction would give the Illinois Central a third main line between Edgewood and Fulton, in the route to New Orleans, would shorten by 22 miles the haul on thru business; would give the road two bridges over the Ohio; would decrease the necessity of moving heavy coal traffic up and down steep grades and would add $2,745,000 a year to the income of the Illinois Central system. These advantages, the commission said, justified the expenditure.

There was no reason to believe the decision continued that the protesting Illinois communities would lose railroad service by construction of the cut-off nor that present transportation rates would be disturbed to their detriment. As an off-set to any possibility of damage, the commission said there would be a benefit to transportation service over a very large area.

Commissioner Eastman, dissenting from the majority decision, declared creation of new subsidiary companies to undertake the construction was a "subterfuge in final analysis subversive of law and order."

"If the Illinois Central wishes to build this line," Commissioner Eastman's opinion said, "it is far better that it should deal frankly with the state of Illinois and seek appropriate corporate power. Or, if it believes the present interstate commerce act enables it to grant the necessary power, it is better that it should seek such authority in its own name rather than in the name of a legal fiction styled the Southern Illinois and Kentucky Railroad Company."

CASE OF EVANS TO BE DECIDED WITHIN WEEK

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Whether "Chick" Evans, noted golfer must face a charge of passing a worthless check for $7,500 will be decided within a week. Evans insisted that the check was not given for immediate payment but was to be held pending completion of a loan arrangement but that this understanding was not carried out by Charles J. Moore, a broker.

Moore had applied for a warrant for the arrest of Evans, who was summoned by Municipal Judge McKinley. Moore charged that Evans gave him the check in payment on various grain deals and that after the check was returned by the bank marked "insufficient funds," he was told by Evans to "try it again." This Evans denied before Judge McKinley today, asserting that Moore understood that he was to hold the check until the collateral committee of the Rogers Park Trust and Savings bank could pass on an application of Evans for a loan. This he declared Moore failed to do.

Judge McKinley said he did not know of any precedent and would take the complaint of Moore under advisement for a week.

SOLUTION OF CRISIS UP TO GOVERNMENT

(By the Associated Press)

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 14.—Wheat farmers of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana are returning to their homes today convinced that the solution of the wheat crisis depends upon the aid of the national government. A telegram sent by John Quincy Adams, president of the Farmers' Union of Washington and northern Idaho, at the close of the convention last night asked President Coolidge to convene congress in special session to adopt relief measures.

After an all day session, resolutions were adopted proposing the establishment of a $500,000,000 federal corporation to deal in wheat and to control all wheat dealers in the United States.

Speakers and delegates alike emphasized that the farmers must join in the single plan to be placed before congress. Senator Borah of Idaho declared congress would not recognize divided opinions.

A basic price of $1.75 on wheat testing 58 pounds a bushel was declared in the resolutions to be necessary if farmers "were to have a square deal." Wheat growers have been asked to co-operate "in furthering united effort by selling no wheat nor of storing none for future delivery," until some definite measure of relief has been effected.

Over production is not the cause of the dilemma, Senator Borah declared. "If the foreign markets were open we could dispose of all our wheat. Millions are starving for the product which we are discussing today," he said.

TWENTY MILLION ISSUE OF NORWAY BONDS ON MARKET

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK Aug. 14.—Public offering of a $20,000,000 issue of 20-year six percent, sinking fund external loan gold bonds of the Kingdom of Norway will be made Thursday morning by an American Banking syndicate headed by the National City company, J. P. Morgan and Co., and the Guaranty company. The price will be 96 1/2 and interest to yield about 6.30 percent.

The proceeds of the loan will be used to balance the budget for the fiscal year just closed by the funding of short term indebtedness.

This is the third Norwegian loan floated here since the war. The first was a loan for $20,000,000 on October 1, 1920, put out in the form of 20 year 8 percent bonds and the second was a loan for $18,000,000 on October 1, 1922 in the form of 20 year six percent bonds. The present loan was secured after lively competition with London bankers who have looked with disfavor upon American competition in the European financial field which they had controlled for generations before the war.

The total debt of Norway June 30, 1923 was $379,821,000. Against this the state owns properties, mostly revenue producing, valued at $335,000,000. This included in 1170 miles of railway out of 2,041 operated within Norway, telephone and telegraph lines, mines and water power stations.

METROPOLIS HAS $75,000 FIRE LOSS

Metropolis, Ill., Aug. 14.—Several business houses were destroyed by fire here tonight which caused a loss estimated at $75,000. The fire started in the Zeller Hotel, spread to an adjoining hardware store and also destroyed the Odd Fellows building, all located in the heart of the business district. Outside assistance had to be summoned from Paducah, Ky., to get the flame under control.

CHAUTAUQUA NOTES

Sixty of the small tents were raised at the chautauqua grounds in Nichols park Tuesday and everything will be in readiness for the campers by this evening. Some campers are planning to move in tomorrow.

Frank G. Armitage comes to Chautauqua patrons Saturday evening, Aug. 25. He is a character portrayal artist gifted to an unusual degree in the art of mimicry and expression. He has a program that is exceedingly funny and at the same time artistic.

The big tent stood the hard rain of Tuesday afternoon without showing the least sign of leak. Workmen made good progress with the platform, the electric light wiring is well under way, the telephone connection has been made and the assembly organization is rapidly taking permanent form.

The Morgan County Centennial badges for those citizens of Morgan, Cass and Scott counties who have lived in Morgan county territory 75 years were received Tuesday and are on display at the Farmers' State bank and Schram & Buhrman's. They bear the inscription, "Morgan County Centennial 1823-1923. Seventy-five Years in Old Morgan." The latter lettering is in gold on a background of dark blue ribbon. They are very attractive.

Edward Reno, magician of more than 25 years' experience, has traveled in every quarter of the globe, and is constantly inventing new things in wizardry. He always delights his audience.

Word was received Tuesday that U. S. Senator Lehigh will arrive early Friday afternoon over the Burlington. He comes to Jacksonville direct from a lecture engagement in Iowa. The opportunity of hearing one of the leading statesmen of the nation is attracting much interest and the address he will deliver will be one of the feature addresses of the chautauqua. HOLLYWOOD LEONARD WINS MATRON STAKES

Takes Feature Race at Fort Miami Park—Several Spills in the 2:18 Trot

FORT MIAMI PARK, Toledo, O., Aug. 14. (By A. P.)—The fourteenth renewal of the Matron stakes, value $7,380 for three year old trotters was won here this afternoon by Hollywood Leonard, driven by Tollman, owned by Charles V. Leonard of Boston, Mass. Hollywood Leonard finished sixth in the first heat which was won by Thompson Dillon, the Senator, owned by Thomas Taggart, of French Lick, Ind., was second in each heat.

The race in the first heat in which he broke, killed off Thompson Dillon and Hollywood Leonard coming fast outtraced the Senator and Thompson Dillon in the stretch on the second mile. The final heat was easy for the Beaumont Farm colt. McDonald made a terrific stretch drive with the Senator but Hollywood Leonard, after leading to the three-quarter mark had enough left to stave off the challenger.

The race was witnessed by United States Senator Thomas W. Taggart, whose son owns the Senator; A. B. Cox of Paoli, Pa., owner of Thompson Dillon; Irving Gleason of Williamsport, Pa., owner of Peter Manning and other well known harness breeders.

The 2:06 pace went four heats before a decision was reached. It also developed the day's betting feature, Russell Ongale, winner of the first heat rewarding his few backers with $71 for $2 in the mutuels. Robert Direct, the favorite, broke in the first heat but took the second without trouble. Russell Ongale being second. The third went to Frisco June and so did the fourth in which only the heat winner met. The best heat of the race was 2:03 1-4.

Gold King won the 2:18 trot, taking the first and third heats, the second going to the favorite, Lady Bondsman. This race was sensational because of the accidents in the first heat. Before the start Better driven by Lon MacDonald tripped, throwing his driver and smashing the sulky. Near the finish of the same heat, Lady Bondsman fell, throwing driver Dick McMahon under the foot of Better. Both sulkeys were smashed but neither driver was hurt. MacDonald however, refused to drive Better in the next two heats. Harry Gray finished the race back of Better.

Walter MacGregor took the 2:10 pace by winning all three heats.

Summaries

2:06 pace. Purse $1,000. Frisco June, won; Robert Direct, second; Russell Ongale, third. Best time, 2:03 1-4.

The Toledo Times 2:18 trot. Purse $2,500. Gold King, won; Lady Bondsman, second; Joe Knight, third. Best time 2:08 3/4.

Luque Now Majors' Pitching Ace

PITCHER LUQUE

BY BILLY EVANS
CINCINNATI—Often one pitcher going at top speed makes a ball club.

This is particularly true if the club didn't bank strongly on the showing of that pitcher.

Adolfo Luque of the Cincinnati club is easily the pitching sensation of the major leagues. He has made the Reds a dangerous contender for the fast going New York Giants.

Last season Rixey (by his sensational work, kept the Reds in the race. This year Luque has supplanted Rixey and then some. The jinx that pursued Luque last year seems to be on the trail of Rixey this season. Inability of Luque to win consistently last year was a big handicap to Pat Moran in his quest for the pennant.

Getting away to a bad start in the spring of 1922 Luque had his troubles winning no matter how well he pitched. The very best he could do was win 13 and lose 23 games for a percentage much lower than that recorded by his club.

When the 1923 campaign opened Manager Pat Moran had his doubts about Luque. Some of the experts on the National league circuit figured the Cuban was slipping. Luque immediately proceeded to upset the dope and has kept on doing it.

In the first 15 games that he has worked Luque has scored 13 victories and suffered only two defeats. Stragely enough the Chicago Cubs won both games by the score of 2 to 1 and 2 to 0. Luque pitched brilliantly in the two defeats, the breaks of the game, which went against him, decided the issue.

Of the 13 games won by Luque, seven came in a row. Only 23 runs have been made off Luque's delivery in his remarkable pitching performance covering 20 games, in several of which he acted as relief pitcher. An additional proof of his effectiveness can be gleaned from the fact that he leads the National league in strikeouts.

CHIGGER INVASION CAN BE HALTED
Hillsboro.—The chigger invasion of lawns and parks through Illinois this summer can be halted easily, the Montgomery County Farm Bureau declares in its monthly bulletin.

A piece of canvas or gunny sack should be wetted thoroughly with kerosene and then wrung out so that it will not drip. The canvases should be dragged across the lawn. The oil will kill all the young chiggers on the ends of the grass blades. The operator should be careful, however, not to let the canvases remain in one place long, since the kerosene will kill the grass. After he has gone over the entire lawn, it is well to sprinkle the lawn liberally with flower of sulphur, which often will rid a lawn of chiggers.

Big In Size and Service

THE greatest achievements throughout the ages have been those discoveries and inventions which have made it possible for men to do the work of the world better and at the same time gain the leisure needed to develop their own powers.

No single class of achievements has done more to overcome the obstacles which confronted mankind in his climb toward better things than those which are grouped about the discovery of petroleum. From this source he first secured cheap and abundant light, lubricants and power.

The discovery of kerosene gave him a clear, dependable light which made systematic night study possible.

The development of unnumbered lubricants made the operation of the countless machines which serve the world practical.

The refining of gasoline made the internal combustion automotive engine practicable.

In the development of these helps, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been a leader.

For years it has maintained, at its refineries, research laboratories and testing stations where men were constantly at work finding new uses for petroleum, and as the discoveries have been proved of practical worth they have been given to the world.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has done more than develop a large number of products and manufacture them in quantities. It has priced them at reasonable figures and has organized a comprehensive system of distribution which makes it possible for any man in the ten Middle Western States served by the Company to get what he wants quickly and easily.

Of these achievements the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is justly proud—particularly so, as the public has paid no premium for the enjoyment of these comforts.

In contradistinction, every additional product that this Company is able to take from petroleum bears its just proportion of the total manufacturing expense and tends to keep down the manufacturing cost and the selling price of all petroleum products.

Thus do the activities of a big organization, founded and operated on the principles of equity, fairness and justice, accrue to the benefits of the public for the common good.

PATHS OF ATOMS CAUGHT ON FILMS

Some Traveling 16,000 Miles a Second Have Been Caught University of Chicago Professor Says

CHICAGO. (By A. P.)—The paths of atoms traveling 16,000 miles a second have been caught in motion pictures, according to Dr. William D. Harkins, professor of physical chemistry at the University of Chicago.

Dr. Harkins has been trying for years to find out what happens when an atom, the smallest particle of matter known, strikes another at terrific speed. Since atoms are small, he stated, they probably never will be seen—it takes 100,000,000 of them to make a line an inch long. So he contrived an apparatus with which he could at least get a picture of the path traveled by them in their flight.

"Another problem developed, as these tiny particles travel across a portion of the two-inch field on which they are confined in 1-400,000,000 of a second," Dr. Harkins said. "That is 32,000 times faster than a bullet. So all I could hope to do was to get a picture of the trail, not of the atom itself. Twenty-one thousand exposures were made to get pictures of three sharp collisions between fast moving bodies of this kind."

Dr. Harkins wanted to see an atom go to smash. The problem was, then to make an atom of some substance collide with the nucleus of an atom of air and then watch the results. He is still studying the results, but the conclusions are still something of a mystery.

"The apparatus used is comparatively simple," Dr. Harkins explained. "A little glass topped chamber with a piston head at the floor is used. On the wall of the chamber is fastened a tiny bit of polonium, or radium C. The first gives off helium atoms at a velocity of 10,000 miles a second. From the other, helium atoms shoot out at 16,000 miles a second.

"The piston goes down, and the air in the cylinder expands. From the speck of metal little rays dart out. They look like whitish streaks when photographed. Sometimes there is one streak sometimes a dozen."

This is what happens "What happens at this dizzy speed is this—when a radioactive substance begins to disintegrate, it shoots off positively charged atoms at a terrific rate. An atom of polonium discharges one positively charged atom of helium. This rapidly moving atom passes through 300,000 atoms of air and knocks electrons out of them without destroying them. Every atom of helium must hit this nucleus before anything happens."

"But three times out of 21,000 we have had direct hits. Now the helium atom, as has been said is positive. So is the nucleus of the atom of air. The physical law is that like repels. When the helium atom recoils and the atom of air starts off in another direction at a wide angle."

"We want to see if we cannot make an atom of air disintegrate under bombardment. If the atom of helium would hit the nucleus of the atom of air squarely, the atom of air should break. The positive atom of helium would rebound, and the remnant of the nitrogen atom of which air is largely composed would go off at one angle a new atom of hydrogen probably would be formed. And that is the one we are interested in."

"How do we get pictures of such invisible particles? Water collects around dust particles in the air. It also collects around electrically charged atoms. We take a picture of a tiny streak of moisture left by the atom as it travels thru space."

"The atom of helium electrifies the air atoms it passes thru, and the moisture gathers around these positively charged atoms of air and the electrons."

POWER PLANT ON LAKE DECATUR

Decatur. (By the Associated Press)—A power plant on Lake Decatur to cost $5,000,000 is to be constructed by the Illinois Power and Light Company, according to the announcement of W. A. Boehr, vice president and general manager, who has been inspecting the newly built lake and the surrounding country.

Reorganization of the city railway lines, an immediate lowering by 25 percent of the power rate and the location of the great central power plant are included in the plan.

In conference with the city council, officers of the Decatur Water Supply company and local officers of his own corporation has convinced Mr. Boehr of the feasibility of the project.

ILLUSTRIOUS CITIZENS SEEM TO BE SCARCE IN ABE LINCOLN'S STATE

Eight Niches for Statues of Illustrious Citizens in State Capitol Building—Five Have Been Vacant for a Half Century—Legislative Action Only Can Fill Them

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., August 14.—In the rotunda of the state capitol here, just a stone's throw from the offices of the governor, are eight niches intended to receive the statues of eight illustrious citizens. Yet for half a century five of those niches have been vacant.

The likeness of Stephen A. Douglas, Abraham Lincoln and Governor John Wood of Quincy, occupy three of them. Authority to fill the other five rests with the legislature, state officials say, and yet, since the eighties not a figure has been added.

The history of statehouse statuary and why there have been no additions since the days when the capitol was being completed is a long tale of controversy between opposing groups of hero worshippers, recrimination and court legislation. The result has been that many distinguished statesmen of Illinois still are unrepresented in the state's hall of fame.

There would be two tiers of statuary if all the niches were filled. Just beneath the dome on a level with the legislative chambers are eight more pedestals, and the fight over what famous men should occupy them caused rancor and bitterness in the eighties.

Governor Richard J. Oglesby in his third term appointed three statehouse commissioners whose duty it was to see to the expenditure of funds appropriated for completing the building, construction of which had been going on intermittently since authorization of its construction in 1867. These men were George Kink, William Jayne and John McCreary, but they little realized what was before them.

They ordered eight statues for the pedestals, or corbels, beneath the dome and apparently planned to fill the lower niches as well. The names of the figures were published, and then the controversy began. Many names were suggested but the commissioners were obscure.

Finally, D. T. Littler, of Springfield, obtained an injunction restraining the commission from proceeding with the purchase of the statuary. Littler, himself, a relative of Governor Oglesby, accused the administration of making political capital of their positions. He said the expenditure of more than $500,000 was illegal unless sealed bids were received, and, of course, when the commission selected its artists, it did not go into the open market to bid for them.

"I don't think that the great state of Illinois wants to leave it to three men who get $500 a year to decide which of its public men shall be honored by having their statues placed in the state house," he said.

A revised list was published and the commissions for the design given to three artists, Peter E. Foll, Edward Glutink and William Mall of Chicago.

The list was to include Ninian Edwards, territorial governor; Shadrach Bond, first governor of the state; Richard J. Oglesby, governor at that time; Sidney Breese, justice of the state supreme court and United States senator; Lyman Turnbull, United States senator; General Ulysses S. Grant, John A. Logan, William R. Morrison, soldier and congressman.

Governor Oglesby was accused by some of his political enemies of elbowing his way into the hall of fame by virtue of his he then held. Ultimately his name was withdrawn and the figure of Edward Coles, second governor, was placed on the pedestal meant for the then governor. The statues were erected in 1887.

For the niches on the second floor names of distinguished governors first were suggested with a few other distinguished men. Among those suggested were Coles, Ford, the elder Yates, and John Devoet. Finally, however, the figures of Douglas and Lincoln were erected, and Quincy, in admiration of John Wood, presented the state with a statue of its former citizen.

The exciting details of the controversy are preserved now in Illinois State Historical Library by Mrs. Jessie Palmer Webber, librarian, and her assistant, Miss Osborne.

At the office of the secretary of state, who is ex-officio caretaker of grounds and buildings, it was said that only an action by the legislature ever could fill the empty places in the Illinois hall of fame. The law might possibly be construed to mean that the secretary could order them filled, but the custom has so decreed that the erection of statuary to the famous sons of the state usually is authorized by the two houses.

MILLIONS SPENT FOR CHEWING GUM

New York (AP)—The people of the United States pay more than a million dollars a week for their chewing gum, according to statistics brought together by the National City Bank and given out by this institution. The habit of chewing gum evidently is growing, for the output has doubled since 1914.

The export sales of gum are large, and increasing. The product goes to practically every country in the world.

SEEK SAFETY FROM DUST EXPLOSIONS

Testing the Amount of Explosive Dusts in Suspension in Air at Commercial

Washington.—Development of a method of testing the amount of explosive dusts in suspension in the air at commercial plants, with the aim of reducing the number of disastrous explosions, is under way by engineers of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture which expects shortly to announce the perfection of a successful testing instrument. Such a device, it is said, would result in the saving annually of many lives and an untold amount of property.

Processes in many industries are productive of considerable dust clouds, which, hanging finely suspended in the air, form a combination that is highly explosive among the establishments in this category are grain elevators, rubber working plants, spice, flour and feed mills, and plants in which powdered sugar, corn starch, sulphur and aluminum are used or manufactured.

Through a period of many years fires and explosions in these and other industries have taken an immense toll. The attention of engineers has been applied to their prevention, and the government has organized a laboratory under the direction of David J. Price, in the Department of Agriculture, for the sole study of dust explosion prevention. As a result fires and explosions in several industries have been reduced almost to a minimum; especially is this true in flour mills.

The problem of the engineers has been to discover how much dust must be suspended in the air to form an explosive mixture. While the lowest limit was not definitely ascertained, it seems to range from a content of from 7 to 35 ounces of dust per thousand cubic feet of air. The instrument devised by Mr. Price and his engineers is to enable plant engineers to check up on this condition by drawing the dust-charged air through a paper filter, and comparing the weight of the collected dust with the amount of air thus analyzed.

VIOLENCE MARKS PATH OF ARCTIC TRADERS

Anchorage, Alaska—Mystery ships plying the Siberian arctic loaded with whiskey which is bartered to the natives for furs, still take their toll of murder in the piratical traffic, according to Captain Andrew Pedersen here, who says he was recently an innocent member of such an expedition. The limit was actual murder, he says, when the Siberian government attempted to stop the traffic. Captain Pedersen's story follows:

"We sailed out of Nome for what I was told would be a trading voyage to Siberia. I will not tell the names of the owners or skipper of the trader, for reasons best known to myself. At one port the boat took on a large quantity of furs, after getting the natives drunk on moonshine whisky. An official of the Siberian government came aboard to collect a tax and force payment for the furs. He was thrown overboard and shot. The last I saw of him he was clinging to a piece of ice. I do not know whether he died or was rescued."

During their trip they did not spend a single night under a roof, nor did they eat many meals in restaurants or cafes. Their wants were well provided for in their excellent campers' outfit.

Only one mishap occurred during the trip. While the family watched the bathers at Atlantic City, a thief cut the suit case from the side of their car and made away with all their clothing. The evidence of Mr. Graham's ownership of the auto, which was lost with the other articles, would have made it possible for them to drive into Canada. SEEN FACTS ABOUT
PHOTOGRAPHIC ATTEMPT TO DETERMINE THE COMPOSITION OF STRANGE AREA ON IT.

Curious results are obtained when certain objects are photographed under different lights. For example, plates of a landscape obtained by infra-red light give the sky as jet black and trees and grass as white as snow. Ultra-violet photographs or pictures obtained through a quartz lens heavily silvered on one side show white garden flowers as quite black.

If the moon's whiteness were due to the presence of zinc oxide, then the localities in which this substance was present when photographed by ultra-violet rays would not appear white, but black. This plan has been tried in the case of lunar photographs, and in the neighborhood of the crater Aristarchus it is clearly shown that there is a considerable area whereof the surface material differs from that in its proximity.

In ordinary light this shows no variation from the rest of the surface, but repeated photographs taken with the quartz lens and silver lens prove that some unsuspected substance exists on that spot. The difficulty is to determine its nature. The only way at present it is seen in photographs of different rocks until one is found that presents the same characteristics as those of this district of the moon. There have been unavailing trials of lavas, volcanic debris and minerals of many kinds.—Washington Star.

MUCH TO SUPPORT CLAIM

Colchester's Assertion That It Is the Oldest Town in Great Britain May Be True.

The average American tourist in England is usually content to limit his sightseeing to those historic spots which the guide books have made familiar, writes Adelaide Bragg Gillespie in Travel, without ever realizing that there are many places of historic interest and actual beauty not far from the beaten track, which more than repay the adventurer who strikes off boldly from the popular itineraries. Comparatively few travelers, for example, explore the beauties of Essex, yet this is a really charming country that is rich in quaint and ancient towns and villages.

And the touchstone of Essex is Colchester, only 52 miles from London, and easily accessible by motor or by train. From the standpoint of tourist, historian, archeologist, and antiquary alike, Colchester is the most important town of its county, and a day, or many days, may pleasantly and profitably be spent in visiting its treasures. For Colchester makes the unique claim of being the oldest town in Great Britain, and as the relics and remains of its various inhabitants date back to Paleolithic and Neolithic times we shall not dispute the claim.

To Be Happy, Though Married.
H. E. W.: Is it true you hold a theory that married people are not happy? This is to settle a bet.

When, Meriel! . . . What I hold is that human beings are as happy or as miserable as they make each other. It is generally true that married people are as happy, on the average, as unmarried people. But it is peculiar of married people that they do a whole lot of unnecessary things to make each other miserable, and as a result they're always having company, because they'd rather see almost anyone than each other, the way they feel in their curl papers and gouches. It isn't being married that does it. It's forgetting to be sweethearts. But married people who keep on being pals and sweethearts are the happiest beings this side of angels.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

However, he persisted, but in order that he might get through his dinner without discredit, they taught him such phrases as "Beg pardon" and "Present company excepted."

At the dinner the old man remained quiet for some time. At last he decided that he would say something.

Star to Appear on Alternate Days for the Present Is Announcement of Publisher—Other White Hall News

White Hall, Aug. 14.—The first issue of the White Hall Daily Star appeared Saturday as a five-column quarto, ready-print, with supplement to accommodate the advertising patronage. The second issue appeared today as the White Hall Star with the statement that it will be issued on alternate days instead of daily for the present. G. W. Grames is editor, and the style of his writing in the initial announcement is very commendable.

Emory D. Proffit, advertising manager of the Patterson-Sentry circus, is here with the first advertising crew in the interest of the appearance of the aggregation on August 30th. This is the circus that appeared at Carrollton early this year, and the Carrollton papers spoke well of it. It is conveyed in 14 circus cars, meaning car space about double ordinary cars, and comes to White Hall from Mexico, Mo. The exhibition will take place on Pine Grove grounds, adjoining the Chautauqua grounds across the street on South Main.

Benn W. Kirgan will soon be transferred to White Hall from the Chicago terminal postoffice as city carrier in the place of C. E. Kemp, whose resignation was effective July 1st last, and the place has in the meantime been filled by Russel Conrod through emergency appointment.

KEYS LOST IN SAND,
FOUND IN CONCRETE

Foreman at Lincoln Loses Bunch of Keys in Car of Sand and Workman in This City Rakes Them Out of Soft Concrete—Had Gone Thru Mixer.

Recently the foreman of the sand pits of the Lincoln Sand and Gravel Co., at Lincoln wrote to the superintendent of the paving projects in this city requesting him to have his men look for a bunch of keys, which the foreman thought he had lost in a car load of sand. He had a notion that that particular car was billed to Jacksonville.

The superintendent here thought it a long chance that the keys could be found here and gave little attention to the matter. However, a few days later one of the concrete workers on the paving gang raked the bunch of keys out of a mass of concrete, which was being prepared for the pavement. They had been brought here in a car of sand and had even gone thru the concrete mixer. The lost keys were sent back to their owner at Lincoln.

NEW YORK STOCKS
Chicago, Aug. 14.—Heavy selling of the oil shares based on the extension of the gasoline price cutting war to 15 middle western and northern states, unsettled the early part of today's stock market but a brisk recovery set in towards the close with net gains exceeding net losses in the final quotations.
Liquidation of the oil shares was accompanied by reports of another imminent cut in Mid-Continental crude prices and rumors that some of the smaller refining companies were on the verge of bankruptcy. New low prices were established by Cosden, Sinclair, Common and Preferred,
Phillips, Producers and Refiners, Marland, Middle States, Maracaibo, transcontinental, Skelly, White Eagle and Invenible the extreme loss ranging from 1 to 3 points.
Substantial recovery from the low prices of the day was made in most cases however, before the close.
Wall street apparently is perplexed by recent developments in Europe. The reaction of the foreign exchanges, which are generally regarded as a good barometer of the trend of business and political thought abroad were slightly unfavorable.
Demand sterling held steady around 45 1/2 but French francs broke to 5 1/2 cents, another new low for all time, and Belgian francs registered a nominal loss.
Both made partial recovery later while German marks actually showed a net gain of 13 points on the day being quoted at 40 cents a million.
The quick recovery in today's market was regarded in many quarters as proof of the market's sound technical position. Baldwin which had sold as low as 11 1/2 during the month, rallied later to

K. C. LIVESTOCK SUMMARY
Kansas City Stock Yards, Aug.
13, 1923.—The receipts of cattle today are 35,000, or about 8,000 more than a year ago. The run was largely made up of Kansas and Oklahoma pasture cattle, with a heavy supply of cows, heifers and calves from the southwest.
This movement is fully 30 to 40 days earlier than normal, and now is an opportune time to secure cattle by those desiring stockers of this class, and also for the cheaper killing kinds. On good, fleshy, weighty, killing steers, the killers have met strong competition from the breeders, this kind selling from $7.75 to $10. Good quality steers range from $6.50 to $8.60, and common to fair kinds from $4.25 to $6.25. Cows are selling from $3.25 to $6.00. There is a heavy run of heifers and calves, and these are selling lowest in ten years.
Hog prices are in keeping with other market advances 20 to 30 cents the top today going at $7.80.
Bulk $7.60 to $7.70. Packing sows sold from $5.75 to $6.15.
Pigs sold from $5.50 to $6.15,
making a good feeding margin.
Sheep and lambs are 15 to 25 cents higher. Fat lambs changed hands from $11 to $12.40, feeding lambs $10 to $11.25. A good many thin lambs he offered.

WHEAT MARKET
SHOWS DECLINE
CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—For the first time in nearly a week, the wheat market today took a decided downward course. European selling of future deliveries was a bearish factor and new buying lacked vigor in the face of six cents recent upturn in values.
The close was unsettled at 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 net decline, with September
99 1/2 to 99 3/4 and December 1.03 to 1.03 1/4.
Corn finished 1/2 to 1 to 1 1/4
down, oats at 1/2 to 1 1/4 net gain, and provisions varying from a setback of 5c to a rise of 2 1/2c.
Much of the selling which took place in the wheat market was based on opinions that a reaction might naturally be expected after the continued advance witnessed of late. Some bearish sentiment however was apparently related to news that the French government would flatly refuse British suggestions regarding a settlement with Germany. In various quarters a bearish view was also taken of an official announcement that the Canadian law applying to grain shipments from Canadian ports of the Great Lakes would
